Press release

Sberbank has financed the construction and equipment of the multi-field medical center
Zhelkuar LLP

The grand opening of the multi-field medical center took place in Rudniy (Kostanay region) at financing by SB Sberbank JSC.

The medical center provides services to the population in the framework of the guaranteed volume of free medical care and in the compulsory social medical insurance system. It should be noted that thanks to SB Sberbank JSC, the company was able to significantly expand the range of services provided. If initially there were dentistry services, then at the moment Zhelkuar LLP is a full-fledged multi-field medical center in Kostanay region.

"Supporting SMEs is one of the key areas of our bank's development strategy for the coming years. We understand how important the entrepreneurship development is for the country's economy, and we are actively participating in this process. It is worth noting that projects with high social significance have always been a priority for our bank," Yeldar Tenizbayev, Deputy Chairman of the Management Board for Corporate Business of SB Sberbank JSC, said.

"Diagnostics in the clinic is carried out in digital format. The clinics are equipped with modern digital equipment. Thanks to the financing of SB Sberbank JSC, we have significantly expanded the range of diagnostic services provided. Today, Zhelkuar LLP clinic is a full-fledged multi-field medical center in Kostanay region," Vladimir Klimenko, the company's president, noted.

The financing of the medical center was included in the unified business support and development program Business Road Map 2020 in order to subsidize interest rates on loans within the second direction "Sectoral support for entrepreneurs operating in priority sectors of economy and manufacturing industries".
